Based on the evidence, it is our opinion that the harm was caused by combat activities of the United States Armed Forces and that U.S. Soldiers were not negligent or wrongful.

Claim #07-I92-T032
Baghdad, Iraq

Dear Ma'am:

You have submitted a claim seeking compensation for the death of your son that occurred on 26 June 2007. I have thoroughly reviewed your claim pursuant to the Foreign Claims Act (FCA), Title 10, United States Code § 2734, Army Regulation 27-20 (Claims) and Department of the Army Pamphlet 27-162 (Claims Procedures).

I have reviewed all the information included in your claim and the evidence from the resulting investigation. Unfortunately, your claim is not compensable. After reviewing your claim, it was determined that there was no evidence that US Forces acted either negligently or wrongfully. Accordingly, your claim must be denied.

If you are dissatisfied by this action, you may request reconsideration of the decision in accordance with Army Regulation 27-20. Any such request must be based on new or additional evidence and should be forwarded to this office. While there is no prescribed format for such a request, it must describe the legal and/or factual basis for relief. Any request for reconsideration should be made in writing within thirty (30) days of your receipt of this letter. Thank you for your kind attention.

Dear (b)(6)

Nonresponsive, (b)(6)

(b)(6)

I wanted you to be informed that my clients (b)(6) and his wife (b)(6) and their sons have told me that their minor son (b)(6) who was (b)(6) years old, was shot by a group of alliance forces soldiers deliberately and killed him at once when he was looking at the street from his house top.

It was very obviously that those soldiers were freighted and they were knowing that the victim was unarmed and mere a kid.

I requested from the American general who was in charge of alliance forces in Baghdad to pay the compensation to this family for their damages they had which was resulted by the death of their murdered kid, I went several times to that American general in the administration under discussion but in vain.

Finally, they have told me that the payment of compensation has already stopped.

Few days later some people who were working in the human rights field have visited Baghdad and I've met one of them who was interested in human rights in Iraq, his name was Mr. (b)(6) lived in New York city in U.S.A., I explained the situation to him and he promised me to do his best and he said that he would send a letter directly to the administration of the alliance forces in Iraq to urge them to pay the needed compensation to that family, but he hasn't done what he has already promised.

I sent him an E-mail reminding him about what he has already promised, but he didn't respond.

Mr. (b)(6) who was a mediate between the Iraqi people in his zone and the alliance forces in Baghdad has told me that the American general who was in charge, can help us in this matter to pay the compensation if he had something like an E-mail from the organization of human rights, it would certainly push him to do so.

Finally, I hope that you can help me through helping this family to deal with this matter and try to attach the administration of alliance forces by your organization which we were considered as a part of it, and send an E-mail asking them to pay this compensation to this miserable family.

Let me tell you then, that I'm very glad to tell you, regardless of any thing, that I'm ready to cooperate with you in Iraq in any matter especially the aspect concerning the human rights, and so we can achieve what we have already gathered for.

Best regards.

Your sincerely,

(b)(6) and (b)(6) have (b)(6) sons, aged (b)(6) According to the family, tc (b)(6) The two youngest are (b)(6) the older boys liked to sleep on the roof during the hot summer months. The older brothers made the (b)(6) carry their bedding upstairs.

The same ritual took place on June 26. But on this night, a foot patrol of the 82nd Airborne was in the neighborhood. (b)(6) as young (b)(6) went upstairs around 10:30 p.m. Apparently mistaking the bedding for a weapon, the soldiers shot (b)(6) dead. (b)(6) mother (b)(6) told Human Rights Watch what happened next:

I was downstairs. I heard the shot and (b)(6) shouted " (b)(6) " We brought (b)(6) downstairs and he was bleeding. I held him. The soldiers were moving around and when they heard the shot, they came here. Maybe they thought they had been attacked.⁶⁴

Two neighbors took the wounded (b)(6) to the hospital in a car, but U.S. soldiers at a nearby checkpoint did not let them through because the 11:00 p.m. curfew was approaching. One of the neighbors, (b)(6), told Human Rights Watch that he and another neighbor, (b)(6), put (b)(6) in his car.⁶⁵ The interpreter with the soldiers said he would call ahead to the checkpoint to let the car through but he either did not call or the message did not get through because the road was blocked, (b)(6); said. Instead, the soldiers made them sit in the car for fifteen minutes and then forced the two men to lie on the ground while (b)(6) was bleeding in the back. (b)(6) died in the meantime and they were told to return home.

The U.S. military offered (b)(6) father, (b)(6) $ (b)(6) to cover the funeral expenses, but the father told Human Rights Watch he had engaged a lawyer and was requesting more. Some members of his tribe were pressuring him to take revenge, he said, but he was still hoping the incident could be resolved "with some forgiveness and some compensation."⁶⁶

The U.S. military did not conduct an investigation into the incident. Human Rights Watch requested information on the case from the legal department of the 82nd Airborne's 2nd Brigade on October 5 but, despite promises of a reply within four days, there had been no response as of October 16.⁶⁷ According to Major (b)(3)(b)(6) with whom Human Rights Watch spoke briefly about the case, (b)(6) was not holding bedding, but an assault rifle. "The kid had an AK-47 on the steps," he said.⁶⁸

"The soldiers determined the situation was hostile and engaged the individual," U.S. military spokesman Maj. (b)(3)(b)(6) told the press at the time of the incident. "It was not until after the search was under way that they discovered that it was an eleven-year-old boy."⁶⁹

Dear sir..

I was informed by my clients (b)(6) and his wife (b)(6) and their sons that their minor son (b)(6) who was (b)(6) years old, was shot by a group of alliance forces soldiers deliberately and killed him at once on 27/6/2003 when he was looking at the street from his house top. those soldiers ^{were} certainly knowing that the victim was mere a boy.

It was definitely proved by the researches which have been done by the international press and specialized satellite channels that the victim was not armed by any kind of weapons when he was killed.

The alliance forces soldiers alleged that the rifle was found in the house of the murdered kid was carried by the murdered kid, but this allegation was absolutely wrong, because it was proved that the rifle was unloaded and it was quite empty. In fact and as you have already confessed that the rifle was founded in one of cabinets which was existent inside his house.

While the alliance forces soldiers were going forward to kill the kid deliberately after they shot him and prevented his parents to convey him to the hospital, they were beating his mother cruelly by their feet when she was carrying her injured son. This cruel beating left very obvious and bad effectiveness upon different places of her body.
