

NATURALIZATION DELAYS
POTENTIAL PLAINTIFF/CLASS MEMBER QUESTIONNAIRE

Instructions: The ACLU Immigrants' Rights Project has been monitoring delays in the naturalization process. If you have not received a decision on your naturalization application from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and you submitted your application more than 180 days ago, the ACLU would like to keep information about your case on file in order to assist us in evaluating future litigation or other advocacy. If you would like to participate in our monitoring effort, please provide the following information and return it by email to natz@aclu.org, or by regular mail to ACLU Immigrants' Rights Project, Attn: Naturalization Delays, 39 Drumm Street, San Francisco, CA 94111.

The information you provide in this form is confidential and will not be disclosed to anyone other than the lawyers and other staff working on the case, unless you give us permission to do so. In order to keep the information on this form confidential, it is important that you do not tell or show anyone what you write on this form, except if you need assistance in completing the form. If you have a friend or relative assist you in filling out this form, that person should take the same care to keep this information confidential.

Full name (LAST name, given name – e.g., SMITH, John David):

Address:

E-mail Address:

Phone Numbers:

Date of Birth:

Country of Birth:

Country of Citizenship:

A-number:

Date you originally entered the United States, and how (e.g., green card diversity lottery, sponsored for green card by relative, employment-based visa):

Date you obtained your Legal Permanent Residence (green card):

Date you submitted your application for naturalization (N-400):

To which CIS office did you submit your N-400? Please note any changes of address since you filed:

Date of naturalization examination (“interview”) – include all dates if more than one:

Did CIS tell you that you passed the English, civics, and U.S. history test?

Have you received any notices from CIS after naturalization examination? If so, when, and what did they say?

Have you asked CIS why your application has been delayed? If so, have you received any response?

Have you inquired with the FBI about your naturalization delay? If so, have you received any response?

Have you asked any members of Congress to assist you with this problem? If so, have you received any response?

Have you EVER had any contact with any police or other law enforcement agency? (This includes even speeding tickets, arrests that didn't lead to any criminal charges, being interviewed by the FBI or the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement.) If so, when? What happened?

Have you ever been sued or have you ever sued anyone? If so, when? What result?

Do you have an immigration lawyer? If so, provide contact information.

Is there any particular reason that the delay of your application affects you more than the average person who is waiting for naturalization? [Examples: Do you work in a profession in which U.S. citizenship leads to job opportunities that are closed to green card holders? Do you have close relatives (spouse, children, parents) who are living in your country of nationality whom you would like to sponsor for lawful permanent resident status?]
