Ellis Island 2005: A Warning to would-be Immigrants Posted on the Statue of Liberty

Abandon all hope ye who enter here,
Liberty and Freedom replaced by Hatred and Fear
Of all things foreign and queer.

Your views will be tolerated as long as they align,
With the power elite and their vision benign.

Opportunity knocks, just don't fall into the gap,
That's wedged ever deeper between the rich and the rest of the poor saps-
And if you're from South of the Border, they'll treat you like crap,
But you can't complain or they'll send you right back.

Mega-corporations have paved the way,
For the strip-mallization
Of our desperate nation;
Prepare to stand in line with commercialization.

Conformity's just a synonym for Starbucks
It's cheap too it only costs $8 a cup,
And it comes with whipped cream
So fill her up

With premium octane wrestled from
The sinister grasp of Muslims/Terrorists
Whose treacherous land stole our Oil.

They are worthy of blame, they must be tamed,
It's all the same, just a new Game,
But will it be as Great as the first?
If only Kipling were alive to proclaim which is worse.

Our present burden is converting fanatical turban-toting savages
Into civilized Christian, blue-collar comedy loving proselytes of Demo-Capitalism.

Heed the clarion call of Clear Channel's
Cadre of catchy Creed clones,
Sometimes words can hurt you
More than sticks and stones

Leave your silly traditions and way of life
At the door and we'll dispose;
It's a cultural liquidation sale
And everyone else's must go;
North Korea, Syria, Iran-
Who will be next to overthrow?

The Black Gold Rush of the
New millennium has arrived,
Phantom WMDs, false threats and more lies,
What else will they contrive?
We're pissing off the world
And Karma may bury us alive.

So contemplate your options,
Before diving head first into America's gene pool

Our Ventriloquist leaders have Itchy trigger fingers, and
Their Puppet's a war-mongering fool

A dangerous combination
That may result in a
Fate so cruel.
