1. UNKNOWN, ; CRUELTY OR MALTREATMENT OF ENEMY PRISONERS OF WAR (NFI)

INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY:

b7D

On 14 Nov 03, this office was notified by [REDACTED] of a possible cruelty and maltreatment of detainees at Camp Red, Baghdad, Iraq.

Investigation established insufficient evidence prove or disprove the offense of Cruelty or Maltreatment of Prisoners of War (POW) occurred as alleged. The investigation disclosed soldiers from B Company; 3/7th Infantry Battalion, established Camp Red to train the Iraqi police force and to detain any Iraqi nationals who were caught committing crimes within the city of Baghdad, Iraq. Investigation further revealed Camp Red's standard operating procedure
(SOP) pertaining to Iraqi detainees who became violent were to separate them away from the other inmates, tie their hands behind them and cover their heads with empty sandbags, which was a security measure to ensure they did not hurt themselves, other inmates, or U.S. soldiers.

I, [REDACTED], want to make the following statement under oath:
 BETWEEN 25 APR 03 – 15 AUG 03, I WAS DEPLOYED TO IRAQ. WHILE IN IRAQ, I SAW WHAT I THINK WERE WAR CRIMES ON THE PEOPLE OF IRAQ. IN MY MIND, MY CHAIN OF COMMAND DID NOTHING TO STOP THESE WAR CRIMES, AND ALLOWED THEM TO HAPPEN. MANY TIMES HARSH TREATMENT WAS GIVEN WITH MY 1SG THERE WATCHING OVER. ONE PLACE I ALWAYS SAW THE TREATMENT WAS IN THE AREA 1ST PLT'S (CAMP RED) WAS. I'D SEE IRAQI CITIZENS MISTREATED. SOMETIMES THERE WOULD BE PRISONER'S WITH SAND BAGS ON THEIR HEADS, STANDING ON A BRICK WITH THEIR HANDS BEHIND THEIR HEAD, AND CONCERTINA WIRE ALL AROUND THEM. IF THEY GOT OFF THE BRICK THEY WERE MANHANDLED. A LOT OF PICTURES WERE TAKEN AT THE TIME THAT 1ST PLT WAS AT CAMP RED. MANY SHOW THE MISTREATMENT OR CRIMES AGAINST THE PEOPLE THAT WERE CAUGHT AT CAMP RED. WHEN PRISONERS WERE WITH HEADQUARTERS PLATOON, THEY WERE PUT OUT IN THE OPEN PAVEMENT WHERE THEY WOULD BE MADE TO SIT FOR 6 TO 12 HOURS AT A TIME IN THE HEAT AND SUN. THEIR HANDS WOULD BE TIED BEHIND THEIR BACKS, SOMETIMES TURNING THEIR HANDS PURPLE. WE WERE TOLD BY OUR 1SG NOT TO GIVE THEM FOOD OR WATER BECAUSE THEY WOULD JUST KEEP COMING BACK FOR IT. IF WE DID GIVE THEM ANYTHING BY THE 1SG, HE WOULD YELL AT US.

- Q. Where is Camp Red located?
- A. Baghdad, Iraq.
- Q. Who was the person in charge at Camp Red?
- A. CPT [REDACTED] he is the Battalion Maintenance Officer for 3/7 Infantry.
- Q. How long were you at Camp Red?
- A. I was not actually at Camp Red, I just went there everyday [REDACTED]
- Q. These people you feel were mistreated, were they military or civilians?
- A. I don't know for sure.
- Q. Why were these people being detained at Camp Red?
- A. For trespassing. If they were caught inside 1st Platoons area, they were detained.
- Q. What exactly did you see happen to these people?
- A. I saw them get pushed and kicked by soldiers in 1st Platoon.
- Q. How many times did you see these people being pushed and kicked?
- A. Every day I went down there.
- Q. Why were sandbags placed on the heads of the detainees?
- A. I have no idea.
- Q. When you say the detainees were manhandled if they got off the bricks, what do you mean by that statement?
- A. They were jerked up.
- Q. Who was the person in charge of the detainees?
- A. SFC [REDACTED] he is the Platoon Sergeant of 1st Platoon.
- Q. Was he aware the detainees were being pushed and kicked?
- A. Yes.
- Q. How do you know he was aware?
- A. I saw him there.
- Q. Did you see him push or kick the detainees?

Statement of [REDACTED], taken at the 30th Military Police Detachment (CID), Fort Stewart, GA 31314, dated 14 Nov 03, Continued:

A. Yes, I saw him push their heads down while they were sitting on the ground. Sometimes the detainees would look up at him and he would push their heads down.

Q. What would happen to the detainees after being at Camp Red?

A. After 72 hours they would release them.

Q. You have provided three pictures to this office, where did these pictures come from?

A. They were given to me by other soldiers in 1st Platoon.

Q. I am showing you one of the pictures of a building, what does this picture depict?

A. That is the main building at Camp Red. This is where 1st Platoon stayed and where they kept the detainees.

Q. I am showing you one of the pictures of a soldier standing between two detainees, what does this picture depict?

A. It shows how the detainees were put inside the wired in area with bags over their heads.

Q. I am showing you one of the pictures of individuals lying on the ground, what does this picture depict?

A. That is what I was told the detainees were put on the ground and then a Bradley was backed up on the sidewalk to spook the people on the ground.

Q. Were you at Camp Red when the Bradley was backed up on the sidewalk while detainees were lying on the ground?

Q. No.

Q. In the picture you can see what appears to rucksacks in the upper right hand corner. Is this correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Was it common for rucksacks to be hung on the outside of the Bradleys?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know if there is a Bradley parked in the upper right hand corner of the picture?

A. Yes there is.

Q. Was this a common area for the Bradleys to be parked?

A. Yes.

Q. Could this Bradley have been parked prior to the individuals being placed on the ground beside it?

A. I have no idea.

Q. Do you know why the Bradley was backed up on the sidewalk?

A. I was told it was to spook the detainees.

Q. Were the detainees given food and water?

A. I saw them with water. I never saw them eat.

Q. Did you see any soldiers shoot any of the detainees?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any soldiers stab any of the detainees?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any soldiers cut any of the detainees?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any soldiers choke any of the detainees?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any soldiers place a noose around the necks of detainees?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any soldiers sexually assault any of the detainees?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any soldiers throw urine or feces on any of the detainees?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any of the detainees being dragged by a vehicle?

A. No.

Q. Did you see any of the detainees being physically harmed?

A. No.

Q. How were the hands of the detainees tied behind their backs?

A. Sometimes with zip-ties or 550 cord.

Q. Were zip-ties or 550 cord the only means of restraining detainees by your unit?

A. Yes.

Q. Is there anything you would like to add to this statement?

ORGANIZATION/ADDRESS:

I, 1SG [REDACTED] want to make the following statement under oath:

I deployed to Iraq on 22 Jan 03, and we arrived in Kuwait. We entered Iraq on 19 Mar 03, and arrived in Baghdad on 1 Apr 03. We stayed at the Baghdad International Airport for approximately one week. About two weeks later we arrived at the War College in Southwest Baghdad and took over from the Marines on securing the War College. A couple of days later, I had one Platoon go to the Power Plant in Baghdad, one Platoon go to a research facility, which we called Camp Red. The remainder of my unit remained at the War College, which we called Camp Baylor. I would visit Camp Red and the Power Plant once a day delivering Logpac. During my visits at Camp Red, I would observe the Platoon and the way they were handling the detainees. I would make my recommendations to them on how to take care of and treat the detainees. They had two different detainee areas. The main area was located inside a building; the other area was just outside the building. I would spend about an hour during Logpac and witnessed on numerous occasions the detainees sitting on the floor and listening to the instructions of the soldiers. There would be a lot of yelling when the detainees would not cooperate. The detainees that would give us a hard time and would not listen, we put them in the second holding area outside the building. Sometimes my soldiers would put sandbags over the detainee's heads while they were outside. The reason for the sandbags was our Command Post and sleeping areas were just away from the holding area. We did not want the detainees to be able to sit in the holding area and watch our operations. On many occasions we would put the detainees to work with the tasks of cleaning the building they stayed in, policing up outside the building, digging slit trenches, moving rocks and furniture around. We just wanted them to understand if they were caught looting then we would put them to work and try to keep them from coming back. The process at first was we kept the detainees for 24-48 hours and then release them. We were then instructed to start processing detainees back to Camp Baylor for out processing at the Airport detention facility. I would call before delivering Logpac to determine the number of detainees at Camp Red, to know how many vehicles I would need to transport them. We had forms to fill out, the NCO that was there would fill out the forms and then I would take the detainees to a holding facility at Camp Baylor. We would always transport them under armed guard either in Bradleys or in trucks.

Q. Who was in charge of the detainee area at Camp Red?

A. SFC [REDACTED] b7c-4, b6-4

Q. Did you ever have detainees make complaints about their treatment at Camp Red?

A. Other than wanting food.

Q. Did you provide food to the detainees?

A. Not when they first got there. Many times they would just show up and ask for food and if we did that then our numbers would have never decreased. They were given food after a while.

Q. Did you provide water to the detainees?

A. Yes. Once we started getting a large supply of water, we would have individual bottles for each detainee with their corresponding number on the bottle.

Q. Describe the holding area outside the building of Camp Red.

A. It had a stone ground with concertina wire surrounding it. It was about six feet in diameter. This was the area we would put detainees that were causing problems, talking back, or not following instructions.

Q. Were these detainees guarded?

A. Yes. Outside the concertina wire a soldier would stand guard. Usually it was just one soldier, depending on the number of detainees in this area.

Q. When you would see the detainees inside this holding area, what were they normally doing?

A. Standing there with their hands either parallel to the ground or behind their heads.

Q. I am showing you a picture of detainees lying on the ground. Do you know the location depicted in this picture?

A. It looks like the area at Camp Red, just behind where we parked the Bradleys.

Q. Do you know why these detainees are on the ground?

A. It looks like they may have just been captured or dropped off in that area or they may have been sleeping.

Q. At any time while you were at Camp Red, did you witness any detainees being treated unfairly?

A. No.

Q. Did you ever receive reports of your soldiers mistreating the detainees?

A. No.

Q. Was medical attention provided to the detainees?

A. Yes.

Q. How many detainees would normally be held at Camp Red?

A. It varied day to day. I think the largest number was about 60 and then it started to drop off slowly.

Q. How long would the detainees be held in the outside holding area?

A. I don't know.

Q. Do you feel the detainees at Camp Red were treated in accordance with Army Regulations?

A. When I was at Camp Red they were treated in accordance with Army Regulations.

ORGANIZATION/ADDRESS:

B Company, 3/7 Infantry Regiment, Fort Stewart, GA 31314

I, SFC [REDACTED] want to make the following statement under oath: b7c-4, b6-4

In Jan 03, we deployed to Kuwait, and moved into Iraq on 20 Mar 03. We conducted numerous missions during the war, after the majority of the missions were complete, my platoon was sent to a Nuclear research facility which was called Camp Red. There were two places that we occupied in the camp, there was the Alpha section which consisted of Bravo 1-1 and Bravo 1-2, which occupied the front gate and Bravo 1-3 and 1-4, which occupied the middle of the facility. When we took over Camp Red, the local civilians started looting the buildings inside the camp. I was told to keep the civilians out and to put a stop to the looting because the U.S. wanted to keep the facility in good shape so the Iraqi government could re-use the facilities. The first couple of nights we were catching approximately 60-80 civilians inside the camp looting. Some of the individuals we detained were found in possession of weapons. Some of my soldiers had bayonets pulled on them when they detained the individuals. There was never an issue with my soldiers; they used appropriate levels of force. There were two separate areas inside Camp Red where detainees were held. The first was an area at the front gate where detainees were held as they were caught, awaiting transport to my area. The first few days all the detainees were held at the front gate and then we started moving them to the second area in the back of Camp Red. I was in charge of the back area which included one of the detainee holding facilities. Inside the dining facility we had a dining area wired off and that place was to house the detainees during the daylight hours. On the outside we had a holding area which had a canvass top to give shade and chairs underneath. We had a chain-link fence around it. The third area was an area to segregate individuals that were causing problems in the dining facility. It was made of concertina wire. I was told by my supervisor to hold the detainees for 24 hours, so as we caught them we would keep them for 24 hours. If they were caught during the day we would house them in the building and then at night we would move them to the outside area. After 24 hours we would release them. About two weeks into it, I got the word that instead of holding them for 24 hours, my ISG would pick them up every evening and take them back to Baylor base. When a detainee was caught, he would be searched. Normally he would be walked back to the detaining area. At that time we would take a marker and annotate the date and time they entered the detainee area. We would then either place them inside the detainee area or outside, depending on what time of day it was. If a detainee was belligerent or some cases violent, we would move them to the segregation area until they were ready to be moved back in with the rest of the detainees. In some cases, the detainees would try to hurt each other or themselves. We had some detainees hitting themselves with bricks, in these cases we would tie their hands with either flex-cuffs or 550 cord, behind their backs and place them inside the segregation area. Once they were inside the segregation area we would place sandbags over their heads. We did this because sometimes the detainees would try to bite each other and try to spit on us. We also did not want them to be able to watch our Command Post. We had some detainees that would jump into the wire or try to jump over the wire. For those types of individuals we would make them stand on bricks about 3-4 inches off the ground to limit their movement. There were only a couple of times that either I or my NCO's found our soldiers about to loose their tempers with the detainees. We were able to stop the soldiers and get them out of the situation before they could place hands on the detainees. I never saw or heard about any of my soldiers mistreating the detainees.

Q. Were you in charge of the detainee holding facility the entire time your unit was at Camp Red?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you witness any actions by U.S. personnel that you would consider to be improper while at Camp Red?

A. No.

Q. How long were detainees usually held at Camp Red?

A. At first it was 24 hours and then later it was less than that.

- Q. Were the detainees provided medical attention, if needed?
A. Yes, I had my medic there with me.
- Q. Did any of the detainees ever complain about their treatment?
A. No.
- Q. Were the detainees in the segregated area under guard?
A. Yes, they were all under guard.
- Q. I am showing you a picture of detainees inside the segregated area with sandbags on their heads. Describe what is depicted in this picture.
A. There are three detainees in the holding area with sandbags over their head. Their hands are behind their head.
- Q. Was this the normal procedure for detainees in the segregated area?
A. Not always. Putting sandbags on their heads was not the normal procedure.
- Q. How long would the detainees normally remain in the segregated area?
A. Usually 30-60 minutes and then we would put them back in with the rest of the detainees.
- Q. Do you think they understood why they were being placed in the segregated area?
A. Yes. When they were inside they were sitting down and had to be quiet. If they weren't quiet or they became belligerent they would be placed outside until they calmed down.
- Q. When they were placed back inside, how would they normally act?
A. Most of the time they were better, sometimes they weren't.
- Q. I am showing you a picture of detainees lying on the ground. Can you describe what is depicted in this picture?
A. I don't know.
- Q. Is the area in the picture near your area?
A. I don't know.
- Q. Do you know why these individuals would be lying on the ground?
A. No.
- Q. Do you feel the detainees at Camp Red were treated in accordance with Army Regulations?
A. Yes.
- Q. To your knowledge were the detainees at Camp Red treated unfairly?
A. No.
- Q. Did you ever have individuals attempt to stay at the detainee facility at Camp Red?
A. Yes, we even had one guy try to stay there and wanted to come back to the U.S. with us.
- Q. Is there anything you would like to add to this statement?

B Company, 3/7 Infantry Regiment, Fort Stewart, GA 31314

I, SPC [REDACTED] want to make the following statement under oath: b7c-4, b6-4
 My unit deployed to Iraq on 21 Jan 03. On 20 Mar 03, we crossed the berm into Iraq and went to Baghdad. Around 30 Apr 03, we began operations at Camp Red, Baghdad, Iraq. While at Camp Red, we were tasked out to catch any looters inside the facility. My Platoon Sergeant sent out patrols throughout the day to catch the looters. When we did catch looters, we detained them if possible. If they made it outside the gate, then we let them go. After we detained them, we took them to the holding area inside Camp Red. We held them there for 24 hours and then released them. While in the holding area some of the detainees would act up so we made a separate holding area for these individuals. It was about 20 foot square fence with concertina wire and bricks underneath the wire to hold it down. The individuals inside the separate holding area would be put inside there if they were acting up. If they were acting up too much, we would either place a sandbag over their head or lay them on the ground with their hands and feet tied. Some of them would try to jump into the concertina wire, so we would tie their hands and feet also. If they continued to act up then we would just keep them longer than 24 hours until we felt they had calmed down enough to be released. Even now and then we would have to go inside the holding area to check the restraints or put the sandbag back on their heads if they came off. Some of the people did make it over the concertina wire, so we would have to take them back inside. The detainees were given as much water as they wanted and some of them were given food if they stayed over 24 hours. About 3-4 of the detainees got hurt from trying to get out of the concertina wire and our medic gave them medical attention.

- Q. Did you witness any detainees being treated in an unfair manner?
- A. No.
- Q. What would you use to restrain the detainees?
- A. He had zip-ties until we ran out and then we used 550 cord.
- Q. Why were sandbags placed over the detainees heads?
- A. For security reasons. To make sure they didn't see what we were doing and then go tell their buddies what we were doing and when we were doing it.
- Q. How were the sandbags secured over the detainees heads?
- A. They weren't secured. We just put it over their heads.
- Q. Did any of the detainees ever complain about their treatment at Camp Red?
- A. Not really.
- Q. When you entered the segregated holding area, did you carry a weapon?
- A. No.
- Q. Why would you enter the segregated holding area?
- A. Just in case the bag came off their head, they fell into the concertina wire, check their restraints, or to let them in and out.
- Q. Did you ever witness any of the restraints being too tight?
- A. No.
- Q. Did any soldiers get into trouble for their treatment of the detainees?
- A. Not that I know of.
- Q. Were you briefed on taking pictures of detainees?
- A. No.
- Q. At no time did anyone in your Chain of Command tell you not to take pictures of the detainees?
- A. No.
- Q. I am showing you a picture of a soldier inside the segregated holding area. Is this you in the picture?
- A. Yes.
- Q. When was this picture taken?

CPT [redacted] want to make the following statement under oath:
 Between 20 Jan 03 -26 Aug 03, I was deployed to Iraq and was stationed at Camp Red, which was located near Baghdad, Iraq. I served as the platoon leader, 1st Platoon, B Company, 3/7th Infantry Battalion, Fort Stewart, GA, and Officer in Charge (OIC) of Camp Red. The functions of the Camp Red's was to detain individuals who were suspected of looting within the city of Baghdad and to assist in the training of the local Iraqi national security force that protected the research facility where Camp Red was located.

Q: SA [redacted]
 A: CPT [redacted]

Q: Is this statement a written account of the questions being asked.
 A: Yes.

Q: About how many U.S. military soldiers were assigned to Camp Red?
 A: About 38 U.S. soldiers, all assigned to 3/7th Infantry.

Q: How many detainees, enemy prisoner of war (EPW), or local Iraqi nationals were held in Camp Red?
 A: I would say there were about 500 prisoners that were held at Camp Red.

Q: What was the capacity at one time for Camp Red?
 A: The most we could hold at one time was about 40 prisoners.

Q: How many U.S. soldiers were on shift providing security at one time?
 A: The squads pulled security for about 4 hours per day, with each squad comprising of about 9 soldiers.

Q: Did you see any cruel or unusual punishment towards any of the Iraqi prisoners?
 A: No.

Q: Where you aware of any mistreatment by U.S. personnel towards any of the Iraqi prisoners?
 A: No.

Q: How were prisoners treated if they became aggressive towards other prisoners or U.S. soldiers?
 A: They were separated from the other prisoners.

Q: Describe how were they separated from the other prisoner?
 A: The unruly prisoners, were taken outside to an area surrounded by concertina wire, some were placed with empty sandbags on their heads to prevent them from seeing or counting the number of U.S. soldiers who were in the camp. Their hands were also flexi-cuffed, to prevent them hurting themselves or the other prisoners.

Q: Were the unruly prisoners given opportunities to have food, water, and use the latrine?
 A: Yes.

Q: How long were the prisoners held at Camp Red?
 A: They were usually held for no more than 12 hours. If they were repeat offenders, then they would be transferred to another facility to further detention.

Q: How were the prisoners identified and detained?
 A: The prisoners where were picked up by U.S. soldier on patrols, who identified them as looting or committing some other crimes.

Q: Is there anything else you wish to add to this statement at this time?
 A: No.///END OF STATEMENT///

ON 14 NOV 03, THIS OFFICE WAS NOTIFIED BY [REDACTED] OF POSSIBLE CRUELTY AND MALTREATMENT OF DETAINEES AT CAMP RED, BAGHDAD, IRAQ.

b7D

PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION REVEALED BETWEEN 25 APR 03 - 15 AUG 03, MEMBERS OF B COMPANY, 3/7 INFANTRY REGIMENT, FORT STEWART, GA 31314, WERE ASSIGNED TO CAMP RED, BAGHDAD, IRAQ, AND WERE REQUIRED TO

UNCLASSIFIED - FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

DETAIN INDIVIDUALS FOUND LOOTING IRAQI PROPERTY FROM CAMP RED. ON 14 NOV 03, ██████████ STATED DURING FREQUENT VISITS TO CAMP RED, ██████████ HE/SHE WITNESSED SELECTED IRAQI DETAINEES BEING PLACED IN A SEGREGATED HOLDING AREA, WITH SANDBAGS COVERING THEIR HEADS, AND MADE TO STAND ON BRICKS WITH THEIR ARMS BEHIND THEIR HEADS. ██████████

██████████ RELATED IF THE DETAINEES GOT OFF THE BRICKS THEY WERE "MANHANDLED" BY UNIT PERSONNEL. HE/SHE FURTHER RELATED THEY WERE INFORMED BY THE UNIT NOT TO GIVE THE DETAINEES ANY FOOD OR WATER.

██████████ STATED HE/SHE HEARD THAT DETAINEES WERE PLACED ON A SIDEWALK AND A BRADLEY FIGHTING VEHICLE WAS BACKED UP ONTO THE SIDEWALK TO "SPOOK" THE DETAINEES ON THE GROUND. ██████████ RELATED HE/SHE DID NOT WITNESS ANY DETAINEES BEING PHYSICALLY ABUSED OR ASSAULTED BUT FELT THE TREATMENT THUS FAR WAS CRUEL.

ON 14 NOV 03, THE UNIT 1SG WAS INTERVIEWED AND RELATED HE VISITED CAMP RED ONCE A DAY TO DELIVER FOOD AND DID NOT WITNESS ANY MEMBERS OF THE UNIT MISTREATING THE DETAINEES. THE 1SG RELATED THAT DETAINEES WERE PLACED IN THE SEGREGATED HOLDING AREA WHEN THEY WERE DISRUPTIVE AND WOULD NOT LISTEN TO U.S. PERSONNEL. THE 1SG ALSO STATED SANDBAGS WERE PLACED OVER THE DETAINEES HEADS TO PREVENT THEM FROM VIEWING THE COMMAND POST AND SLEEPING AREAS OF U.S. PERSONNEL OUTSIDE THE HOLDING FACILITY. FURTHERMORE THE 1SG STATED THE DETAINEES WERE PROVIDED FOOD, WATER, AND MEDICAL ATTENTION IF REQUIRED.

ON 14 NOV 03, THE HOLDING AREA NCOIC WAS INTERVIEWED AND STATED THAT UPON THEIR ARRIVAL AT CAMP RED, LOCAL CIVILIANS BEGAN LOOTING THE PROPERTY FROM CAMP RED AND HE RECEIVED ORDERS TO DETAIN THE LOOTERS AND HOLD THEM FOR 24 HOURS PRIOR TO RELEASING THEM. HE FURTHER STATED ONCE DETAINED, THE INDIVIDUALS WHO BECAME EITHER BELLIGERENT OR VIOLENT WOULD BE PLACED IN A SEGREGATED HOLDING AREA OUTSIDE THE HOLDING FACILITY. SANDBAGS WOULD BE PLACED OVER THEIR HEADS TO LIMIT THEIR VIEW OF UNIT PERSONNEL AND EQUIPMENT, AS WELL AS, TO PREVENT THEM FROM BITING OR HURTING OTHER DETAINEES. THE NCOIC FURTHER STATED A NUMBER OF DETAINEES WOULD ATTEMPT TO JUMP OVER THE CONCERTINA WIRE SURROUNDING THE SEGREGATED HOLDING AREA; THEREFORE, THEY WOULD BE REQUIRED TO STAND ON A 3" TALL BRICK TO LIMIT THEIR MOVEMENT. THE NCOIC STATED HIS SOLDIERS USED THE APPROPRIATE LEVELS OF FORCE WHEN DETAINING THE INDIVIDUALS, AND HE DID NOT OBSERVE ANY U.S. PERSONNEL MISTREATING OR ABUSING THE DETAINEES.

Rev. agree with final C. I think the Staterat says it all. They is no first hand knowledge of the crime and during the interviews, nothing was brought up. when I was there, this was the SOP for most of the EPW/detainees. The soldier only did what he thought was right by reporting it.
