GENERAL ORDER

SUBJECT: POLICE ETHICS

POLICY

The community views its police officers as symbols of stability and authority. There is a bond of trust between the Department and the people it serves. These rules are designed to promote efficiency, discipline, and good community relations.

PROCEDURE

I. Attached is the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics as furnished by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education. All officers shall familiarize themselves with and comply with this Code of Ethics.

II. All employees will comply with the following rules:

1. Compliance with law - All employees shall obey all local, state, and federal statutes, ordinances, and laws as well as all provisions of the Constitution of the State of Texas and the United States of America. All employees shall obey all rules, regulations, directives and orders of the Department whether verbal or written.

2. Disparaging Remarks - No employee will insult or degrade another individual by making derogatory remarks about that person's race, skin color, gender, religion, national origin, age, or disability.

3. Off Duty Enforcement - An off-duty officer shall not enforce minor traffic violations unless the violation presents an imminent threat of serious injury to someone.

5. Unbecoming Conduct - An employee shall always conduct himself (both on and off duty) in a way which reflects favorably on the Department. Unbecoming conduct includes unjustified behavior which may bring the Department into disrepute or which may discredit or impair the operation of the Department.

   b. Investigations - An employee shall not interfere with cases assigned to another officer. He shall not undertake any investigation or other police action not part of his regular police duties except in emergencies. If he does take such action in an emergency, the officer must make a written supplement on the case and notify the appropriate supervisor.
   c. Operations - An officer shall not interfere with the operation of any department division, section, or unit.
   d. Off-Duty Officers - An off-duty officer shall not take enforcement action in matters involving family members unless the situation is a crime in-progress. Officers should contact on-duty police personnel from the police agency with jurisdiction over the incident.

8. Conflicting Orders
   a. If the employee believes an instruction or order is improper, he should obey the instruction or order and file a complaint after carrying out the order or instruction.
   b. If the employee believes the instruction or order is illegal or, if followed, would result in physical injury to the employee or others, or damage to City or public property or equipment, the employee should request approval by the next higher level of supervision before performing the work, unless the danger complained about is inherent to the job. Certain jobs, such as police officer or firefighter, are inherently dangerous and this provision would only apply in situations that are beyond what a reasonable person would be expected to do in a particular situation.

14. Use of Official Identification or Position - An employee shall not use his official position, identification card, uniform, insignia, department logo or badge for personal financial gain or privilege. This section shall not apply to wearing the uniform or pistol on department approved off-duty jobs.

15. Use of Name, Photograph, or Title - An employee shall not permit or authorize the use of his name, photograph, or official title, which identifies him as a member of the Lewisville Police Department for testimonials or advertisements of any commodity or commercial enterprise, or for any personal reasons without the approval of the Chief of Police.

   c. No one may require an employee to contribute to any political fund or to render any political service. No one may punish an employee in any way for refusing to do so.

   d. An employee shall receive reasonable leave of absence, provided there are a sufficient number of employees to carry out the normal functions of the Department, to exercise his constitutional right to appear before or petition the Texas Legislature. Such leave shall be without pay unless such representation involves the official business of the Department.

Law Enforcement Code of Ethics

AS A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the constitutional rights of all persons to liberty, equality, and justice.

I WILL keep my private life unselfish as an example to all, and will conduct myself in a manner that does not bring discredit to me or to my agency. I will maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn, or ridicule, develop self-restraint, and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the laws of the land and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I WILL never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities, or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice, or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I RECOGNIZE the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of the police service. I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other police officers. I will cooperate with all legally authorized agencies and their representatives in the pursuit of justice.

I KNOW that I alone am responsible for my own standard of professional performance and will take every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge and competence.

I WILL constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession... Law Enforcement.
