Dear Madam and Messrs. Chairmen:

To keep your committees fully informed of matters pertaining to your oversight responsibilities pursuant to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as amended ("FISA"), 50 U.S.C. 1801, et. seq., we are submitting herewith several documents for your information. The content of these documents were described, in pertinent part, in briefings provided to the House and Senate Intelligence and Judiciary Committees in March, April, and August 2009. The enclosed documents contain redactions necessary to protect the national security of the United States, including the protection of sensitive sources and methods.

The enclosed documents are highly classified. Accordingly, while four copies are being provided for review by Members and appropriately-cleared staff from each of the four Committees, the copy for the Senate Committee on the Judiciary is being delivered to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence for appropriate storage. The House Committee on the Judiciary’s documents will be delivered to the House Security Office for appropriate storage.
We hope that this information is helpful. Please do not hesitate to contact this office if you would like additional assistance regarding this or any other matter.

Sincerely,

Ronald Weich
Assistant Attorney General
