I am also doing a story on some issues Muslims have been having at the border. Not sure when it will run, but perhaps in the next couple of weeks. Don’t know if there is someone in your shop who might be willing to talk about this.

The Muslim Americans are being asked questions like “what is your religion,” “how often do you pray,” “is your car going to blow up,” “who is going to win the battle between the US and Islam” etc. I even got hassled at the border when I was wearing what a guard assumed was a headscarf.

I would like to give the administration a chance to respond to all this, explain the policy, perhaps clarify why this has been happening, and whether this is something that is currently being addressed.

The story I am working on is substantial and based on weeks of interviews. I have asked DHS to respond and thought I would ask if your shop wanted to weigh in (on or off the record) as well.

Best,

DINA
