Summary of new complaint for your review:

On March 12, 2010 CRCL staff informally found a NPR article transcript titled, "Muslim Americans Question Scrutiny at Border" hosted by Apri Shapiro. As mentioned in the article, alleged Mr. (b) (6) professor of Middle Eastern studies at Georgetown University, while at the Fort Lauderdale Airport was referred to secondary inspection allegedly due to his 'location of birth.'

He states that the, "[CBPO] asked him about his parents, what he studied in college, where he went to college, his sisters' names...Then he suggested he look up his resume on the Georgetown University website because all the information he wanted was there...After he asked him what he teaches at Georgetown University and his response was Middle Eastern politics, he asked, 'Who's going to win?'"

Thank you.
