CCIPS Electronic Evidence Newsletter
Accessing Password-Protected Files (February 2012)

Go-by of the Month

For more information about obtaining electronic evidence in criminal cases, see the CCIPS manual on Searching and Seizing Computers and Obtaining Electronic Evidence, which is publicly available at http://www.cybercrime.gov/ssmanual/. If you have questions or would like additional guidance on electronic evidence issues, call the CCIPS duty attorney at (202) 514-1026.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to future newsletters, please email CCIPS.Tips@usdoj.gov. Unless there is a problem or question about your subscription request, you will not receive a confirmation email. This email list is restricted to federal prosecutors and federal law enforcement agents, and you must use a government email address to subscribe.