Re: (S)

01/15/2010

(U) (S/NF) If NSLB opines that the searches are reasonably calculated, CXS is inquiring as to the possibility of amending language in the FBI's targeting procedures to allow for deviations of [ __ ] ACS and [ __ ] searches when an identifier submitted to the FBI is not ____________________________

(S) (S/NF) As explained above, CXS opines that current required searches are not reasonably calculated to uncover information in FBI systems. If NSLB opines that the searches are reasonably calculated, CXS is inquiring as to the possibility of amending language in the FBI's targeting procedures. CXS requests that the targeting procedures allow for deviations of the required three databases when the identifier submitted to the FBI is not an e-mail account. In the case of [ __ ] ACS and only if the [ __ ] had been a FISA, would a search of [ __ ] be conducted.
