[redacted] was captured by the Northern Alliance forces. A short time after his capture, [redacted] was turned over to the American military. [redacted] stated that he was not mistreated at any time, nor did he witness any mistreatment while in the custody of the Northern Alliance. [redacted] stated that he was treated "roughly" while in the custody of the American military. [redacted] further stated that while he was not abused while in the custody of the American military, he was, on occasion, pushed to the ground while his hands were handcuffed behind his back.

If [redacted] is released and he returns [redacted] he expects that he will be imprisoned by [redacted] government. This is because he went to Afghanistan and actively participated in the fighting without official permission from [redacted] government. [redacted] believes that he will be imprisoned for approximately one (1) year. This fact does not bother [redacted] because he knows that he was wrong to travel to Afghanistan and join the Taliban. [redacted] is willing to be released to [redacted] authorities and to be placed in [redacted] prison because he would then be one step closer to rejoining his family.

[redacted] he was extremely proud to be a member of the Taliban. [redacted] was impressed with the Taliban and felt that the Taliban were the protectors of the Muslim people and that it was the Taliban who made Afghanistan a safer place for Muslims to reside. [redacted] advised, however, that his opinion of the Taliban has since changed. [redacted] now believes that the Taliban ranks are now composed of "bad Muslims" who are giving all Muslims a poor image. [redacted] no longer supports the views of the Taliban and believes that it is because of the Taliban, Al-Qa'eda, and Usama Bin Laden (UBL) that [redacted] is currently detained at Camp Delta. [redacted] reiterated that if he is released, he would not rejoin the Taliban forces or support the distorted views put forth by Al-Qa'eda and UBL.

[redacted] did admit that if a true injustice occurred against his homeland [redacted] or against the Muslim community, then [redacted] would most likely consider it his duty as a "good Muslim" to become involved.
