[redacted]
[redacted] was interviewed by Special Agent (SA) [redacted]
[redacted] Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and SA [redacted]
Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), at Camp Delta, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The interview was conducted in English.
Throughout the course of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] appeared to be in good health, but complained about the treatment of other detainees when asked about his own condition. [redacted] stated that the tactics being used by the interviewing teams at night were inhumane and degrading. When asked about the specifics of what was happening at night, [redacted] would not elaborate except to say that pornographic pictures were being displayed.

[redacted] prays to god every day that the U.S. will be destroyed. When questioned regarding this issue, [redacted] stated that god knows who is good and who is bad and that he does not want innocent people to be hurt, but wants to see the "system" destroyed.

[redacted] believes that his fate rests with god. When questioned as to when he thinks he will be released or if he thinks he will ever see his family again, [redacted] responded that it was up to god.

[redacted] stated that he did nothing wrong to deserve being detained at Camp Delta and that the American justice system is not working.

[redacted] refused to answer questions regarding [redacted]
[redacted] and the interview was subsequently terminated.

(Agent's note: Twice during the interview, once as soon as the guards left and once during the course of the interview, [redacted] stared at the floor and mumbled prayers. Each time, [redacted] was given approximately five minutes to pray, was then interrupted and the interview was successfully continued.)
