Dear Mr. Rothert:

This will respond to representations made in your February 25, 2022 press release regarding the status of various Wentzville R-IV School District ("District") books. It will also address similarly inaccurate representations set forth in the Amended Complaint you filed on the same day before the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri in Case No. 4:22-cv-00191-MTS.

Despite your characterization of Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic, by Alison Bechdel; All Boys Aren't Blue, by George M. Johnson; Heavy: An American Memoir, by Kiese Laymon; Lawn Boy, by Jonathan Evison; Gabi, A Girl in Pieces, by Isabel Quintero; Modern Romance: An Investigation, by Aziz Ansari; and Invisible Girl: A Novel by Lisa Jewell, as "banned books" in both your press release and Amended Complaint, none of these titles have in fact been "permanently removed" from circulation by the District at this time.<sup>1</sup>

Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic; All Boys Aren't Blue; Heavy: An American Memoir; and Lawn Boy are all titles under challenge and currently in committee review pursuant to District Board policy. Modern Romance: An Investigation and Invisible Girl: A Novel have been returned to circulation in the District without restriction. As such, most (if not all) of the issues raised in present litigation would seem to be moot or unripe. Regardless, I assume that future pleadings and public statements on the matter will accurately reflect the status of the materials under discussion.

Please feel free to reach out to me if you would like to discuss this matter further. Nothing herein is intended as a waiver of any right, defense, claim or argument available to the District, nor should it be construed or represented as such.

Cordially,

/s/ Drew Marriott

<sup>1</sup> As you are aware, the District's Board of Education rescinded its prior decision to not retain The Bluest Eye by Toni Morrison, and voted to retain the title without restriction on February 25, 2022. Further, as acknowledged in the Amended Complaint, Gabi has been retained and returned to circulation after review by the District's Board of Education.
