I approve. Nice work and team.

Here is a synopsis of what I have obtained so far. The caveat is that the airborne missions are not recorded in metrics. I also cannot locate any data in Sentinel and . Therefore, the data I have is based upon an urgent email request that was sent out to the field . There may be additional missions that can be reported in the future, when all the respond (the email was sent 06/08/2015). Also, some of the missions might go back as far as when had tried to start a nascent aerial capability. At that time, CSS gear was sent to had gear, but they sent it back for lack of interest/usage. The POC for that program reached out specifically to those offices in addition to the wide email I sent. All offices reported back with the same stats as the ones emailed to me. There may also be airborne missions that involved that are no longer in the tech program or retired, so I cannot say for certain that the mission numbers are 100% accurate. So far, we have five airborne missions reported.

- Since this information is going to AD Yacone soon, I thought you should be kept in the immediate loop, but the attached document has not received approval for release yet from UC and A/SC.

Hello,

I have two urgent requests:

1.) I have an urgent need for the field to check for a Dell Laptop with Inventory Number ______. Most likely, this laptop was sent to the field as a __________. If you have genuinely located it, please contact me with your ransom demands for verifying the laptop’s existence (send a picture of the service tag number to me, if you wish to engage in negotiations).

2.) Due to a recent misleading story in the AP, Congress and the public are under the assumption that the FBI operates a fleet of aircraft with the CSS capability. My understanding is that the technique was initially deployed back in __________ but was rarely, if ever, used. I am reviewing ______ for any aerial missions, but that database may not be accurate. So from __________ onward, if you recall a CSS aerial mission occurring in your current or prior Field Office, please let me know. We have been asked for specific mission numbers.

Thank you very much for any assistance.
