National and Regional Organizations

CORRECTIONS/CRIMINAL JUSTICE/LEGAL

American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)

Address: 125 Broad Street, 18th Floor
New York, NY 10004
Phone: (212) 549-2500
Website: www.aclu.org
Services: See the listing of state affiliates for services available in your area.

ACLU National Prison Project

Address: 915 15th Street, N.W., 7th Floor
Washington, DC 20005
Phone: (202) 393-4930; (202) 393-4931 fax
Website: www.aclu.org/prisons
Services: Handle class action suits involving prison conditions and related issues in state and federal institutions. Litigation is usually limited to cases involving major class actions challenging prison conditions or otherwise of national significance. Also provide advice and materials to individuals or organizations involved in prison issues. Do not handle cases on behalf of individual prisoners or post-conviction cases.

Center on Juvenile and Criminal Justice (CJCJ)

Contact: Catherine (Kate) McCracken
Address: 440 9th Street
San Francisco, CA 94103
Phone: (415) 621-5661; (415) 621-5466 fax
E-mail: ssp@cjcc.org
Website: www.cjcc.org
Services: The CJCJ runs the Sentencing Service Program (SSP)—the foremost advocate of incarceration alternatives in Northern California. CJCJ provides testimony and disposition case advocacy for youths facing commitment to California's youth correctional institutions or direct file transfer to adult court. In addition, CJCJ offers training and technical assistance to juvenile justice systems on developing incarceration alternatives. SSP staff also consults on a wide array of adult cases ranging from alternate placements to capital punishment mitigation. The organization's expertise with the juvenile institutions provides additional insight in adult cases where the client is a long-time participant in the justice system. Prisoners and persons facing imprisonment who are interested in SSP services should have their attorneys contact Catherine McCracken. CJCJ also publishes a wide variety of articles and booklets on prison conditions, the criminal justice system, and other issues. See Publications section for a complete list.

Centurion Ministries

Address: 221 Witherspoon Street
Princeton, NJ 08542
Services: Only handles cases in which a prisoner has been sentenced to either death or life in prison without parole, cases in which a prisoner has exhausted most or all appeals, and cases in which a prisoner is claiming absolute innocence. No self-defense or accidental-death cases.

Address: 40 Worth St. Suite 701
New York, NY 10013
Phone: (212) 364-5340
E-mail: info@innocenceproject.org
Website: www.innocenceproject.org

National and Regional Organizations

Services: Case submissions are only handled by mail. This chapter only handles cases in which physical or biological evidence could prove innocence. Innocence Projects provide representation and/or investigative assistance to prison inmates who claim to be innocent of the crimes for which they were convicted. There is now at least one Innocence Project serving each state except Hawaii, North Dakota and South Dakota. Most of these innocence projects are new and overwhelmed with applications, so waiting time between application and acceptance is long. Wrongfully convicted persons should not be dissuaded from applying to Innocence Projects because of this, but should have realistic expectations regarding acceptance and time lags. Please go to the following website for information about other affiliates: <http://www.innocenceproject.org/Content/313.php>.

Just Detention International

Address: 3325 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 340
Los Angeles, CA 90010
