ORDER

McMahon, J.:

This court has received a partial mandate from the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, directing that, at this time:

- (3) other legal memoranda prepared by OLC and at issue here must be submitted to the District Court for in camera inspection and determination of waiver of privileges and appropriate redaction;

New York Times Co. v. U.S. Dep't of Justice, 13-422 L, 2014 WL 2838861 (2d Cir. June 23, 2014) (Mandate issued on June 26, 2014).

Accordingly, the Government is directed to comply with Paragraph 3 of the conclusion of the Second Circuit's amended opinion of June 23, 2014, by providing this court with:

- (1) Unredacted copies of the "other legal memoranda prepared by OLC and at issue here" that are the subject of the Mandate (hereinafter "The OLC Opinions");
- (2) A memorandum under seal in which, for each such OLC Opinion, the Government:
 - a. Explains why, in its view, said OLC Opinion need not be disclosed at all because there has been no waiver of any applicable privilege; and
 - b. If the Government concedes that certain portions of said OLC Opinion must be disclosed consistent with the Second Circuit's already articulated findings on waiver of privileges, provides the court with a list of proposed redactions, and as to each such proposed redaction (discussed individually):
 - (i) Explains why that proposed redaction should not be disclosed; and
 - (ii) Explains, with specific reference to the various speeches, Interviews, leaks and publicly-released documents that are discussed in the Second Circuit's opinion, why the Government has not waived disclosure of the proposed redacted material.

The Government has 21 days to comply.
