Newspaper front pages from September 12, 2001

Look back on the events of September 11, 2001 via this collection of newspaper front pages from the following day.

New York Times
U.S. ATTACKED

HIJACKED JETS DESTROY TWIN TOWERS
AND HIT PENTAGON IN DAY OF TERROR

President Vows to Exact Punishment for 'Evil'

By HENRY KISSINGER

Hijackers committed the terrorist acts that claimed the lives of nearly 3,000 people in New York, Pennsylvania, and Washington, D.C., on September 11, 2001, and the United States responded with a military campaign aimed at eliminating the Islamic militant group al-Qaeda. President George W. Bush, who had lifted restrictions on military bases and cleared the way for the use of military force, said in the early morning hours of September 12, 2001, that the United States was prepared to use force against al-Qaeda and its allies in the war on terrorism.

Awaiting the Aftershocks

Washington and Nation Struggle to Find New Normal

By F. R. LEWIS Jr.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11 — The nation was reeling from the devastating attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, and the country was struggling to come to terms with the tragedy. The president was speaking to an audience of the nation's leaders at the White House, where he had gathered earlier in the day to address the nation.

New York Post

4/6/2017
ACT OF WAR

World Trade Center destroyed; many dead
NATIONAL EDITION
Los Angeles Times
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2001

TERRORISTS ATTACK NEW YORK, PENTAGON

Thousands Dead, Injured as Hijacked U.S. Airliners Ram Targets; World Trade Center Is Destroyed

President Shoulders Historic Weight

President Bush leaves the south tower of the World Trade Center after being evacuated from an attack at 9:03 a.m.

A Struggle to Escape Fiery Chaos

Jill Craigie

The Choreography of Carnage Was Precisely Timed, FBI Says

Washington Post's Fight For Freedom

United Flight 93, left, heads for the south tower of the World Trade Center, then explodes on impact with the north tower Hours before an attack 10 minutes earlier.

Terrorists Hijack 4 Airliners, Destroy World Trade Center, Hit Pentagon; Hundreds Dead

Bush Promises Retribution; Military Put on Highest Alert

On Flight 77: "Our Plane Is Being Hijacked"

U.S. Intelligence Points To Bin Laden Network

I Saw Bodies Falling Out—Oh, God, Jumping, Falling

The Australian
Bush vows to hunt down perpetrators of world's worst terrorist attacks

WAR OF TERROR

- World Trade Centre destroyed
- Pentagon bombed
- US attacks Kabul

The Times (London)
CARNAGE ACROSS AMERICA: SPECIAL EDITION

The Sydney Morning Herald

Wednesday, September 12, 2001

Printed with /ka/ No. 18717: $3.00 per copy

Terror war on US

● World Trade Centre razed ● 10,000 feared dead in suicide attacks

It was either be burnt alive or jump

USA Today
Chicago Tribune
Our nation saw evil

Hijacked jets destroy World Trade Center, hit Pentagon
Thousands feared dead in nation’s worst terrorist attack

President promises to avenge lost lives

By Bob Herbert

WASHINGTON—President George W. Bush today promised to avenge the attacks on America. "We will respond with as much vigor and force as necessary to protect the American people," he said.

BUSH’S ADDRESS

The president’s address was delivered in front of a large crowd of military and law enforcement officials. "This is not a time for political games," he said. "We must come together as one people, united in our determination to defend America.

Feeling of invincibility suddenly shattered

By Vernon Simpson

WASHINGTON—The attacks on America have shattered the feeling of invincibility that the country has had for decades. "We are not invincible," said President Bush. "We must be prepared for more attacks.

Stunned residents face lingering horror

By Lisa Hspiner

NEW YORK—The attacks on America have left many residents feeling stunned and helpless. "We are so scared," said one resident. "We don’t know what will happen next.

IN NEW YORK

More than 1,000 people were killed in the attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

Daily News (New York)
Daily Telegraph (Sydney)
War on America
SPECIAL EDITION
SAN FRANCISCO
The Examiner.

Wednesday, September 12, 2001
Keeping San Francisco a free newspaper town.
(three彷 and 25 cents)

BASTARDS!

A CHANGED AMERICA

Daily Telegraph (London)
Financial Review
US horror stuns markets

- Global growth risk
- Rate cuts tipped
- New York paralysed

---

ANSETT goes under: now in administration, page 21

---

"US horror stuns markets"

---

"Crisis in US"

---

"US horror stuns markets"

---

"Unyielding anger: Bush moves to a war footing"

---

"To find out who won Online Banker of the Year, visit www.anz.com"
TERROR HITS HOME

By TONY PASCUAL

Washington Post

Bush expresses nation's grief

TO OUR READERS

This historic front page is one of two保存 Strong and Free printed on the morning of September 11, 2001. It includes the full text of the front page, along with a copy of the full color version, a page from the day's edition, and the full text of the article as published in the Houston Chronicle. See the Chronicle's website for more information.

Boston Globe
New day of infamy

Thousands feared dead after planes hit towers, Pentagon

The attack on America

Washington aftermath

The chaos of this day turned into nothing like the world had ever seen.

The top suspect

As线索 reveals the man who did it, so it begins to look like the world may never be the same.

Security worries

Lawmakers and security experts are now convinced that yesterday's attacks were the result of a terrorist plot.

Playing fields empty

The National Football League has suspended its season as a sign of respect for the victims.

Wide disruptions

Financial markets around the world were thrown into disarray.

Guiding the children

A special hotline was set up to help parents and children.

In unfathomable way, we now know terror and vulnerability

David M. Schiller

National Post Correspondent

Crashes in NYC had grim origins at Logan

Brutal attack

By Peter L. Bernstein

Wide repercussions

The United States and the world are reeling from the attacks.

LA-bound flights left trail of grief in New England

By Ben Elkins

Deadly attacks

The attacks killed scores of people, including many Americans.

Boston.com
ATTACK ON AMERICA: A 32-PAGE SPECIAL REPORT

The Dallas Morning News

War at home

Shaken nation awaits tally from Pentagon, Trade Center attacks; Bush vows to track down terrorists and 'bring them to justice'

Herald Sun (Melbourne)
Seattle Post-Examiner
None of us will ever forget

Knife-wielding hijackers carried out deadly plan
Death toll could easily be in thousands
At least 300 firefighters may be among dead
Terrorists 'flew the planes themselves'

Asahi Shimbun (Tokyo, Japan)
EL ZARPAZO DEL TERROR

Este es nuestro segundo Pearl Harbor

Maariv (Tel Aviv, Israel)
Al-Hayat (Beirut, Lebanon)
طائرات إنتشارية تضرب مبنى الرئاسة وToyota ترقب سفينة تجارية في نيويورك

أميركا تعلن حالة الاحتلال القصوى وتلمني ب沉浸在 أسامة بن لادن في الاعتداءات

الدول تراجع واقتصاد الذهب اقتربت من 300 دولار

الدبابات الإسرائيلية تتوغل في جنين والإصابات توقعت 15 جريحًا فلسطينيًا

إغلاق الغضب الأمريكي يثير فوضى في العالم
Newspaper front pages from September 12, 2001 - 9/11 Remembered - Ten Years On...

Sources: Newseum; News Limited; Fairfax

First posted Sun 4 Sep 2011, 10:27pm