Submitting the notice into Collaboration now.
Collaboration is limited to one week. Typically, Notices only involve CPO, OGC, and OIC on the collaboration chain, but I have included CTD, CID, and CD because there are specific instructions to those divisions. I will communicate with the DPO of each of these divisions that there will be no extension to collaboration.

Submitting the notice into Collaboration now.
Collaboration is limited to one week. Typically, Notices only involve CPO, OGC, and OIC on the collaboration chain, but I have included CTD, CID, and CD because there are specific instructions to those divisions. I will communicate with the DPO of each of these divisions that there will be no extension to collaboration.

I have made a few edits to the layout/acronym usage, but will inputting the rest of my comments in the [redacted]

Hey [REDACTED] suggestion is it possible to utilize [REDACTED] attached document as the baseline for collaboration??? In that [REDACTED] has spent considerable effort to put this together it seems like it would be more efficient hopefully minimizing addressing issues which have already been resolved. Doc attached. Thanks [REDACTED]

I think this is good! It'd be great if this could be the new "baseline" document form which changes could made rather than get bunch of other OGC changes to these changes, etc.

FYI,

[redacted] kicked this thing along a bit and ultimately pointed us to a POC with OGC/CPO to move this LPR policy forward. After being copied on a flurry of emails from [redacted] others on unclass email trying to get something in place ASAP I was put in contact with [redacted] CPO, and we decided to pursue a policy "Notice" which is a temporary policy/guidance document giving us 6 months to complete the final. There's a one (1) week collaboration deadline for input on that.

I've forwarded the final policy revisions from [redacted] Chief OGC-PCLU for your reference. [redacted] take a look and let me know if you have any issues with this.
