International Terrorism

Intermediate

Interview and Interrogation

(ITI3)

May 17-21, 2010
is to be administratively located in the FBI – doesn't this mean that it will have a law enforcement focus?

Response:
• No.

That said, the interagency group that recommended

The FBI is a member of the Intelligence Community. It has an intelligence mission that it well understands, even while it is also capable of bringing law enforcement tools to bear.

Response:
• No.

Why was oversight affect

Congressional oversight?

Response:
•
What is the FBI's policy on interrogation methods?

Response:
- FBI policy is that no attempt be made to obtain a statement by force, threats, or promises. We use the same interview and interrogation strategies inside and outside the United States.

Response:
- By Executive Order and policy.

Response:
- [Blank]

Response:
- [Blank]