On January 26, 2004, contacted the writer in response to the telephonic message. The writer advised of the purpose of the call. Advised that at some point in the future, he would entertain a face to face meeting with agents of FBI to discuss outreach efforts between the FBI and is unaware of any in his community in current need of law enforcement assistance. has twice been the victim of vandalism. On both occasions, received a very positive response from local law enforcement.

was informed that agents from the FBI could, upon request, conduct a formal presentation to answer any questions and/or concerns they may have concerning the FBI. Thought the presentation could be very beneficial and indicated he would broach the idea with members of his committee.
