(U) Asked about the length of his residence at his current address, stated that he had been at his current residence, a single family home, for approximately five years. Prior to that, and his family lived in a nearby apartment. The apartment was noisy and afforded little privacy. Because of the inadequacy of the apartment, had contemplated where he felt that his family's quality of life was better. However, after moving to his current residence, he found that his family's quality of life was greatly improved and far better than in

(U) At the conclusion of the interview, expressed gratitude over the FBI's assistance in clearing up any discrepancies or misunderstandings with regard to and. He commented that it was a direct and positive result of earlier liaison with
