Details: The following is a summary of the most important COP activities for the Sacramento Division during the 2004 calendar year.

Adopt a School Program

SA continued to be actively involved with the Student Buddy program from January to June, 2004. The Student Buddy Program is a mentor program in the greater Sacramento area. The student she had mentored as part of this program graduated from Encina High School in and the student had been involved in the program for

The office has initiated a relationship with the Children's Receiving Home of Sacramento, a facility which provides shelter for children removed from their homes due to abuse or neglect on the part of their parents. The Children's Receiving Home maintains a school on-site for these children to maintain their education while they await placement in a foster home or return to their parents. Office employees plan to volunteer at the school as teacher aides. Eventually, it is anticipated employees would give presentations to the older students on the importance of maintaining a drug-free and violence-free lifestyle.

Youth Programs

The Sacramento Division participated in the Gifts from the Heart Program which is administered by the Sacramento County Office of Health and Human Services. This is a yearly program wherein employees purchase Christmas gifts for disadvantaged youth. Fifty nine employees participated in the 2004 program and purchased gifts for sixty eight children.

Throughout the 2004 calendar year presentations were given by Division personnel to elementary, middle, high school and college students regarding many topics. The topics included the history of the FBI, the mission of the Sacramento Division, and the importance of staying away from drugs, gangs and violence. A total of 20 presentations were given to schools; division personnel attended ten career fairs; ten office tours were provided; and twenty students were given interviews regarding the FBI.

Community/Private Sector Initiatives

Division personnel attended the quarterly meetings of SSA and represented the FBI at these meetings which are held at

The Sacramento Division conducted the first two sessions of the Citizens' Academy in calendar year 2004. The first session was held from February-April and the second from August-October.

The twenty-one participants in the first session included: the NAACP; a staffer from the Anti-Defamation League; a minister from the Interfaith Service Bureau; a staffer from Congressman's Robert Matsui's office; a Sacramento Bee newspaper reporter; and of the Slavic Assistance Center.

The twenty-two participants in the second session included members of the NAACP; three business owners; a Channel 13 (KOVR) assignment editor; a staffer from the office

On 3/1/04, SA and South Lake Tahoe RA, gave a presentation to the South Lake Tahoe Women's Center, focusing on Violent Crime sub-programs.

On 5/8/04, approximately thirty five Sacramento Division employees, family members and friends participated in the 8th annual Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure 5K walk/run. The FBI team participated in the event as one of several governmental agencies.

On 5/13/04, SA participated in the 10th annual "Business of Reading" event held at Blanche Sprentz Elementary school in Folsom, CA. Community members read to small groups of children to foster a life-long love of reading.

On 5/23/04, SSA and SA participated in the annual Asian Pacific Rim Day held in Old Sacramento.

On 6/18/04, SA ran one leg of the Special Olympics Law Enforcement torch run.

On 9/14/04, SA Stockton RA, gave a presentation as part of the Leadership Lodi 2004 Law and Criminal Justice Day.

Throughout the 2004 calendar year, SA attended the monthly meetings of Crime Alert, a citizens run program which assists local, state and federal law enforcement in locating wanted individuals. Crime Alert pays rewards to those individuals who provide information which leads to the arrest of a wanted individual.

BUDGET EXPENDITURES

From July, 2004 through December, 2004, a total of $83.50 was spent on baseball caps for the second Citizens' Academy class.
