

•

The guide to spotting a suicide bomber

Last Updated: 10:30PM BST 28 Aug 2002

The Israeli police will hand out a pamphlet to help people identify potential suicide bombers.

Israelis will be told to watch out for people dressed in "non-seasonal clothing" or "young men or women trying to fit into a crowd they do not belong to" and those with unusual bulges in their clothes.

Related Articles

The 2009 London Marathon showed the Great British public at its best

Pachacuti panama hats: Good buy guide

Palestinian orchestra leader deported to Israel

Two hundred British schoolchildren identified as potential terrorists

Zimbabwe's great diamond rush brutally suppressed by Robert Mugabe's regime

Signs of a suicide bomber are "nervous handling of clothes or fashion accessories", mumbling to oneself, excessive perspiration and walking away from the police.

Palestinian suicide bombers' disguises have included Israeli soldiers, Orthodox Jews and teenagers with bleached blond hair.