ELECTIVES: Seminars for smaller groups will be organized and lead by ACLU Project staff related to the issues of the day and will include a mixture of in-depth presentations, panel discussions, and Q & A.

HOMEROOM: Working in small homeroom groups of approximately 25 people led by Close Up staff, students will deliberate case studies, reflect on what they are experiencing and prepare for a final presentation.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES: Students will have the opportunity to participate in activities such as networking meet-ups, exploring DC's famous monuments at night, painting classes, trivia and more!

ROOM CHECK: Close Up will arrange night security on hallways and provide supervision between 11pm-6am.
