

IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT

If ICE Agents Show Up At Your Door:

- Don't open the door, but be calm. You have rights.
- Ask what they are there for (and ask for an interpreter if you need one).
- If they ask to enter, ask if they have a warrant signed by a judge and if so, ask to see it (through a window or slipped under the door).
- If they do NOT have a warrant signed by a judge, you may refuse to let them in. Ask them to leave any information at your door.
- If they force their way in, don't resist. Tell everyone in the residence to remain silent.
- If you are arrested, remain silent and do not sign anything until you speak to a lawyer.

* An ICE administrative warrant (form I-200, I-205) does not allow them to enter your home without your consent.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

ICE AGENTS AT YOUR WORK

If immigration agents come to your place of work:

- 1) Ask if you are free to leave. If so, you may calmly walk out.
- 2) You have the right to refuse consent to a search. Say out loud that you do not consent to a search of your belongings.
- 3) You have the right to remain silent. You do not have to discuss your immigration status with anyone, such as about where you were born, whether you are a citizen, or how you entered the country. But if you have valid immigration documents, you should show them. Never provide fake documents.
- 4) If you're arrested, say that you wish to remain silent until speaking with a lawyer.
- 5) You have the right to record your interaction with immigration agents as long as you do not interfere.
