I spoke to the Admiral's assistant and he is in the process of clarifying the request. He did indicate that the high level person would be an operational person. I expect MLDU will pass this up their chain for the most appropriate person. I will be happy to brief whomever on what information I have on the pertinent issues. Admiral McGarrah and the Solicitor General will be here tomorrow.

Thanks

I am not sure what they are asking for. I don't know that it requires a "high level" person to work through logistics with them. What kind of issues does the admiral expect will need "high level" resolution.

In the mean time, [Redacted] keep up the good work!

[Redacted] just called with a request from RADM James McGarrah. The Admiral wanted to know the personnel structure the FBI had in place handling the CSRT procedures and who would be the logical person to represent FBI's interests during meetings between the Secretary of the Navy and the Solicitor General's office.

I confirmed his understanding that

DETAINEES-1711

b6 -1

- 1) [redacted] was our Legal representative at GTMO regarding this and many other issues,
- 2) I was handling all repatriation matters and the CSRT / ARB matters, and
- 3) [redacted] was still handling CITF and the OMC Tribunals

b6 -1,2
b7C -1,2

As to the Admiral wanting to know who would be in a position to know our established procedures regarding the CSRT / ARB and also at a high enough level to make decisions while representing the FBI during meetings between the SecNav and the Solicitor General's office, I told him I would check with [redacted] and [redacted] for suggestions. I do not think there is going to be a regularly scheduled meeting, however they do anticipate meetings to discuss issues as they arise. Although [redacted] stated the FBI's response was tremendous, I got the impression that one would be soon to discuss how the CSRT process can be sped up. [redacted] added that there has been a total of 73 Unclash Summanes completed, of which 48 have contained FBI information and were provided to [redacted] for review. Per [redacted] out of the 48, 40 have been completed (for what it's worth Great Job [redacted] and [redacted]'s Team" !!)

b6 -1,2
b7C -1,2

[redacted] [redacted] was going to forward an email from the Admiral regarding this issue. I believe he was going to send it to our Unclash email. I will not be able to get mine until I get home tonight.

Any suggestions on who would best represent our interests at the meetings (that is if anyone goes at all)?
