RE: CLAIM NO. 1234567

1. This case involves a claim arising out of an incident at an Air Force base in the Village of Hilla, Iraq.

2. On [specific date], during a training exercise, a military vehicle accidentally discharged and injured a civilian worker. The incident occurred near [specific location], Hilla, Iraq.

3. The claimant filed a claim for $123,456.78 on [specific date].

4. The claim was processed under and a brief description of the incident or of the issue raised by the claimant was considered the Foreign Claims Act and Chapter 13, AR 27-26. The claim is for compensation for the death of three children from an accidental discharge of a .50mm round near [specific location], Hilla, Iraq.

5. The claimant alleges that during the incident, the vehicle was under a training exercise with a .50mm machine gun. The .50mm round accidentally discharged and struck the three children, who are [names and ages], respectively. Two of the individuals died immediately while the third was taken to the Basrah hospital in critical condition and died the following day. The Basrah hospital was also damaged by fragmentation. The claimant reports that a separate investigation has been conducted and that it has verified that the incident occurred during a training exercise.

6. The claimant seeks compensation for his inability under the Foreign Claims Act and the terms of the Arms Agreement to indemnify the claimant. The claimant claims that they were not negligent or wanton.

7. The claimant also claims that the incident was attributable to a malfunction of the weapon because there was no indication that the condition was due to human error.

8. The claimant further argues that the issuance of the training exercise was a violation of the rules and procedures established by the military.

9. The claimant requests compensation for his losses,

The amount claimed for wrongfull death ranges from 25.000-65.000, depending on the circumstances and age of the victims. Here, the death of two young adults and a child is involved, with the estate of a young person. The claim for her death lead to a settlement of the family in the amount of 35.000. The costs to the family home are estimated at 25.000.

Your alternative is to settle this claim under the Foreign Claims Act for the above claim.

The cost of settling this claim is 15% of the claim, at DSN 788-486-1022 or 1-800-822-6240.
