5. Facts: Claimant alleges that her husband was killed, herself injured and vehicle damaged, when U.S. Forces shot at them from a convoy. The claimant was riding in their 1987 Mazda with her husband and son. They were driving from Baghdad to Mosul. The husband was driving, when they caught up to a U.S. Forces convoy from behind, near Bayji. When they got within 200 meters of the rear vehicle, the gunner opened fire. The claimant’s husband was killed, she was injured and the vehicle damaged. She indicated no warning shots were fired. There is no report of this incident in Division records. The claimant provided two corroborating witness statements, photographs, medical records, a death certificate and a police report with a scene sketch. A legal expert report estimated the damage to the vehicle at $2,300.

6. Opinion: There is sufficient evidence to indicate that U.S. Forces damaged the claimant’s vehicle. Unfortunately, those forces were involved in security operations at the time. Therefore, this case falls within the combat exception.
