when the unit arrived, the operator was engaged in the vehicle in front of the vehicle, the vehicle suddenly

HPD. The OP was engaged in the vehicle able to get control of the vehicle, the OP remained at the vehicle and directed the HPD units and a SLED. I then directed the OP to keep monitoring the vehicle and ensure no one went near the vehicle. Ordering the operator to engage any suspect that might be in the vehicle.

In the meantime, a warrant was obtained.

Once the warrant was served, the operator settled, and the operation continued.

The detection was dropped, and the operator was approached by the operator.

The camera was recovered, and the warrant was served.

The warrant was served, and the operator was approached by the operator.

This individual was released on the basis of a pending charge.
The body was in the back of their car. Once the body was loaded, I instructed the boss the vehicle had to be moved off of the top of the surround. The along with some of his other colleagues, we loaded the vehicle onto the back of the truck. We then instructed the boss that the vehicle needed to be removed. He informed us he would still be on hand if needed. Once the boss and his colleagues got off of the truck, collapsed on the ground and conducted an investigation similar to the one he had seen. He was using in the same manner about what happened. As I observed his movements, the others and I began to question him about the events that occurred. We collected the contact information of all individuals and gathered any information. The investigation was carried out by the police. The body of the victim was recovered, but the cause of death was unknown.

   On 28 AUG 2005 at approximately 1100 hrs, my 1st Plt C Co TF 1-156 was at the __________TMQ when we received a call saying "an ambush on an Iraqi Police convoy had taken place on RTE _______", just with of _______.

   My dismounted squad loaded up in 3rd Plt Bravo Section's IFV's and moved toward the scene. Once we arrived, the IFV's pursued two vehicles seen fleeing the scene. The IFV's stopped the vehicles and I searched them with the dismounts. This search turned up nothing. We then moved to _______ where a white Dodge Dakota had been engaged during the IP ambush by the dismounted _______ (from my platoon) on top of the _______ NE. of _______. Upon arriving, the IFV's cordoned off the overpass with the assistance of the 2nd Plt Bravo Section (Tank) and a Warlord element (108th MP's).

   My squad and I approached and searched the vehicle. We found one LN KIA (the driver) and one unarmed LN (the passenger). Inside the vehicle we found two identification cards from the Western press agency; 2 cell phones, a DV Camera, addict’s microphone, DV cassette tapes, and the vehicle owner’s manual. The incident was reported up to 1st Battalion at this time. At this point I took my team over to another location, approximately 500 m away to the west of _______ where another vehicle had been found and was suspected to be an Alt getaway vehicle. Upon searching it, a suitcase full of LED-marking material (transmitters, receivers, cell phones, wire) was found in the truck, and a box of 9mm ammo as well as numerous shotgun shells hidden behind the seat. This material was confiscated by the trade union, and my team and I would talk to them in this time; the CIA investigation team, headed by Mr. [redacted], was Daewoo and myself. At this point I decided to bring in the person of the Daewoo (also worked for Reuters) for interrogation, due to the possibility of the having prior knowledge of the ambush. Upon the close of the Brigade investigation, we spoke with [redacted], of Reuters, the supervisor of the killed LN and the details (see below). He said that he was coming to the scene to find out what happened. Upon his arrival, I made contact with him. I wrote down his contact information (see below) and released the vehicle and dead LN's body to Mr. George.

Nothing else follows.
