RE: U.S. Marshals Service's Failure to Comply with Executive Order
14006

Dear Director Davis:

We write about the U.S. Marshals Service's failure to comply with President Biden's Executive Order ("EO") 14006. EO 14006 is an important effort "[t]o decrease incarceration levels" by "phasing out the Federal Government's reliance on privately operated criminal detention facilities."<sup>1</sup> This EO states unequivocally that "[t]he Attorney General shall not renew Department of Justice contracts with privately operated criminal detention facilities...."<sup>2</sup>

The Bureau of Prisons complied with this executive order, shrinking its detention network and ending all of its contracts with for-profit prison companies.<sup>3</sup> The Marshals Service, in contrast, has ignored the mandatory requirement of EO 14006 and used two work-around mechanisms to continue to pay for-profit prison companies to hold people. As a result, the Marshals Service has largely ignored its mandate. Although the Marshals Service has ended contracts with for-profit prison companies to hold an average total of 2,131 people, it has continued to pay for-profit companies to hold a far larger average total of 20,827 people.

The first work-around mechanism the Marshals Service has used has involved exemptions from the White House Counsel's Office that allow it to renew contracts that EO 14006 prohibits. These exemptions are unpublished and, as the Department of Justice ("DOJ") Office of the Inspector General ("OIG") has found, they are not even documented for internal purposes.<sup>4</sup> Public reporting indicates that, despite the mandatory language of EO 14006, the Marshals Service has obtained exemptions from its requirements to renew contracts with three private detention facilities: the Western Region Detention Facility, in San Diego, California; the Northeast Ohio Correctional Center, in Youngstown, Ohio; and the Robert A. Deyton Detention Facility in Lovejoy, Georgia.<sup>5</sup> Moreover, a document we recently obtained in response to a Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”) request indicates that this practice of obtaining exemptions is far more widespread. This document, attached to this letter, lists five additional large private facilities for which the Marshals Service has obtained an exemption: Central Arizona Detention Center (also known as the Central Arizona Florence Correctional Complex), in Florence, Arizona; Rio Grande Detention Center, in Laredo, Texas; Otay Mesa Detention Center, in San Diego, California; El Centro Detention Facility, in El Centro, California; and Central Valley Annex, in McFarland, California. Publicly available information about each of these facilities’ operations corroborates that the Marshals Service currently holds people in all but one—the Central Valley Annex, which had its contract extended for two years, at which point ICE took over the facility.<sup>6</sup> This document also lists the Nevada Southern Detention Center in Pahrump, NV as currently “pending” an exemption. This means that there are a total of eight for-profit facilities with pending or granted exemptions where the Marshals Service continues to hold people, despite EO 14006. These eight facilities incarcerated a

This annual report does not list the Marshals Service as the primary customer for Otay Mesa Detention Center, but that appears to be because ICE leases more bed space than the Marshals Service does at that facility. CoreCivic’s website makes clear that the Otay Mesa Detention Center continues to hold people in Marshals Service custody—publishing data current as of “2023 Q2” on people in Marshals Service custody who are in the facility’s Restrictive Housing Unit, and listing contact information “For USMS INMATES” to report PREA violations. CoreCivic, Otay Mesa Detention Center, <https://www.corecivic.com/facilities/otay-mesa-detention-center> (last accessed Sept. 11, 2023). GEO Group’s website likewise lists “U.S. Marshals Service” as a client for the Rio Grande Detention Center and El Centro Detention Facility. GEO Group, Rio Grande Processing Center, <https://www.geogroup.com/FacilityDetail/FacilityID/76> (last accessed Sept. 14, 2023); Geo Group, El Centro Detention Facility, <https://www.geogroup.com/FacilityDetail/FacilityID/269> (last accessed Sept. 14, 2023).

total average daily population in Fiscal Year 2022 of 7,298 people—over a tenth of the Marshals Service’s total systemwide Fiscal Year 2022 average daily population of 62,942.<sup>7</sup>

The second work-around mechanism the Marshals Service is using to continue paying for-profit prison companies despite EO 14006 is pass-through Inter-Governmental Agreements (or “pass-through IGAs”). Under this type of agreement, the Marshals Service and a for-profit prison company avoid contracting directly by using a local government as an intermediary. The Marshals Service hires the local government as its contractor, and then the local government hires the for-profit prison company as a subcontractor. The local government plays no role in the operation of the detention facility other than serving as the pass-through conduit for the payments (and the local government receives a payment for serving as the middleman). Thus, similar to a typical arrangement where the for-profit prison company is the Marshals Service’s direct contractor, the Marshals Service pays the for-profit prison company to hold people. But unlike a typical arrangement, the for-profit prison company is technically the Marshals Service’s subcontractor—not contractor. The Marshals Service has apparently decided that, despite EO 14006, it can continue to pay for-profit prison companies so long as they are technically subcontractors rather than contractors. It has continued extending these pass-through IGAs even after the Executive Order was issued—apparently without obtaining any exemptions.<sup>8</sup> The Marshals Service has pass-through IGAs for 40 additional facilities in 11 states, which incarcerated an average daily population in Fiscal Year 2022 of 13,529 people.<sup>9</sup> This figure is over a fifth of the Marshals Service’s total systemwide average daily population.

Together, these two mechanisms result in the Marshals Service paying for-profit prison companies to operate 48 facilities with total average daily populations of 20,827 people —nearly a third of the total population in Marshals Service custody. By contrast, the Marshals Service has to our knowledge only ended contracts with seven private facilities since EO 14006 was signed: the Aurora ICE Processing Center, the Crossroads Correctional Center, the Leavenworth Detention Center, the Queens Detention Facility, the West Tennessee Detention Facility, the

<sup>8</sup> The attachment to this letter lists both the Joe Corley Detention Facility in Conroe, Texas, and the Fannin County Detention Center in Bonham, Texas, as having pass-through IGAs with “Effective Date” after the Executive Order was issued. In the column indicating whether an exemption has been obtained, both facilities are listed as “N/A.”

<sup>9</sup> The attachment to this letter lists 41 facilities as “IGA-Private”—in other words, a pass-through IGA. This list includes one facility—the Northeast Ohio Correctional Center—that also received an exemption and that we already counted in the list of “exempt” facilities above, resulting in 40 additional pass-through IGA facilities.

Willacy County Regional Detention Facility, and—after extending the contract for two years—ultimately ending the contract with Central Valley Annex. These seven facilities had an average daily population in Fiscal Year 2020 (the last full year before the Executive Order was signed) of 2,131 people—only about 3% of the Marshals Service’s total average daily population.<sup>10</sup>

The Marshals Service’s practice of continuing to pay for-profit prison companies raises serious transparency concerns. President Biden campaigned on promises to “end the federal government’s use of private prisons.”<sup>11</sup> His Executive Order on the subject backtracked from his campaign promises in one significant way: it made no commitments to end for-profit immigration facilities.<sup>12</sup> We have consistently advocated for the closure of for-profit immigration facilities as well, and today we are also sending a letter to Secretary Mayorkas on that issue. Nonetheless, EO 14006 is a clear, unequivocal commitment to “not renew Department of Justice contracts with privately operated criminal detention facilities....”<sup>13</sup> The Administration’s practice of using secret exemptions—which are not even documented for internal purposes—and pass-through agreements to avoid following through on this public commitment represents a troubling lack of transparency.

The Marshals Service’s continued use of for-profit prison facilities also has harmful effects beyond just transparency. By paying for-profit prison companies, the Marshals Service provides support to an industry that lobbies for increased incarceration at a hefty cost to the public. In 2022, the Marshals Service accounted for 22% of the total revenue of the largest for-profit prison corporation, CoreCivic.<sup>14</sup> The Marshals Service similarly accounted for 16% of the total revenue in 2022 of the GEO Group, another large for-profit prison corporation.<sup>15</sup> These for-profit prison corporations use this money to lobby the government to pump even more money into the for-profit prison industry. For example, CoreCivic reported spending over $1.8 million on federal lobbying in 2022,<sup>16</sup> and GEO Group reported spending over $900,000.<sup>17</sup> For both CoreCivic and the GEO Group, the top three bills on which they lobbied addressed appropriations to the Department of Homeland Security and the Department of Justice.<sup>18</sup> Those bills established the size of both ICE's and the Marshals Service's detention networks, and both agencies' funding for the alternatives to detention that could reduce those population numbers. Both CoreCivic and the GEO Group also spend significantly on political donations. For example, GEO Group and a subsidiary of CoreCivic each spent $250,000 on President Trump's 2016 inaugural festivities, and GEO Group and its subsidiaries also gave $225,000 to a pro-Trump super PAC.<sup>19</sup> Thus, despite EO 14006's stated goal of decreasing the detention population, the Marshals Service continues to pay large sums of money to corporations that have a well-established history of using their income from government contracts to lobby on policies to increase the number of people the federal government incarcerates.

The Marshals Service refuses to make public the rates that it pays to private contractors, even going so far as to redact these rates when responding to FOIA requests. This is a questionable practice that shields from the public the financial arrangements that these for-profit prison companies enjoy with the government, and it is impermissible under FOIA law.<sup>20</sup> Regardless, aggregated data that is made public suggests that the Marshals Service provides for-profit prison companies sweetheart deals at significant cost to American taxpayers. The Marshals Service pays an average rate of $166.87 per night when it contracts with a for-profit prison

Shortly after President Trump was inaugurated, his administration changed Bureau of Prisons policy to increase the department's payments to for-profit prison companies. company to incarcerate people at a private detention center.<sup>21</sup> Additionally, when the Marshals Service replaces a direct contract with the pass-through IGA structure described above on page three, it inflates its costs. The OIG recently analyzed one instance where the Marshals Service replaced a direct contract with a pass-through IGA and found that the change in contract structure “increased the USMS’s costs—potentially by as much as $6 million per year....”<sup>22</sup> The pass-through IGA structure is also worse for the Marshals Service because it “provides the USMS with less direct oversight of the facility than when the USMS contracted directly with the private contractor.”<sup>23</sup>

Finally, when it works with for-profit prison companies, the Marshals Service holds people in more dangerous conditions and takes on the risk that flows from these companies’ abusive business practices. In the words of President Biden’s own domestic policy advisor, for-profit prisons “are proven to be, or found to be by the Department of Justice inspector general, less safe for correctional officers and prisoners.”<sup>24</sup> When the OIG examined the Bureau of Prisons’ use of for-profit contract facilities, it likewise found: “in a majority of the categories we examined, contract prisons incurred more safety and security incidents per capita than comparable BOP institutions.”<sup>25</sup> By contracting with these facilities, the Marshals Service is endorsing these poor conditions. For-profit prison corporations also engage in risky, abusive business practices. For example, one court has found GEO Group to have likely violated the Trafficking Victims Protection Act by forcing the people it detains to work without adequate pay.<sup>26</sup> This finding could result in sanctions that could bar the government from contracting with the GEO Group entirely.<sup>27</sup> By continuing to make heavy use of GEO Group facilities despite

<sup>27</sup> The Federal Acquisition Regulations require GEO Group—like any federal contractor—to notify the contracting officer and the contracting agency Inspector General immediately of any credible information it receives that alleges a GEO Group employee has engaged in forced labor practices. Federal Acquisition Regulations § 85.222-50(d). The Court’s finding that GEO Group likely violated the federal court finding it has engaged in abusive practices, the Marshals Service risks a sudden shock when it must cancel GEO Group contracts or when GEO Group is debarred.

The Marshals Service must plan for an orderly transition away from for-profit prison companies and end its practice of using exemptions and IGAs to evade compliance with EO 14006. There are several concrete steps that you and the Marshals Service must take to address these problems.

First and foremost, the Marshals Service should work with the Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys (“EOUSA”) at Main Justice, and the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts to promote alternatives to incarceration pre-trial, and to ensure that people who do not need to be incarcerated pending trial or resolution of their case are instead in the community during that time. This would comport with one of the primary purposes of EO 14006: “[t]o decrease incarceration levels.”<sup>28</sup> The Marshals Service already makes use of some available mechanisms, such as funding alternatives to detention, to encourage the federal courts to release people while awaiting trial, which it has indicated result in “substantial” “budgetary savings” by decreasing the number of people the Marshals Service must pay to incarcerate.<sup>29</sup> The Marshals Service should expand these efforts to further decrease its system-wide incarcerated population and therefore accordingly reduce its reliance upon private facilities.

Second, for people who are not released to the community pending resolution of their case, the Marshals Service should take active steps to find alternative arrangements that will allow it to hold detainees in government-run facilities that are close to their families, friends, and defense attorneys. The Marshals Service has justified keeping for-profit facilities open by claiming that the only way for it to hold people near major population centers where court proceedings are located is to contract with these for-profit facilities.<sup>30</sup> But this the TVPA qualifies as a credible allegation of forced labor practices. GEO Group’s failure to report this credible allegation can subject it to a variety of sanctions, including termination of contracts and debarment. Federal Acquisition Regulations § 85.222-50(e)(6)-(7).

<sup>30</sup> OIG Report at 2 (explaining the Marshals Service’s conclusion that the only alternative to continuing to use the Northeast Ohio Correctional Center was to move people to a Bureau of Prisons facility “about 300 miles” away, which the court and defense attorneys found unacceptable), 3 (explaining that the Marshals Service’s plan for closing the Western Region Detention Facility was to move people to “a BOP facility more than 3 hours from the courthouse,” which the court and defense attorneys also found unacceptable).

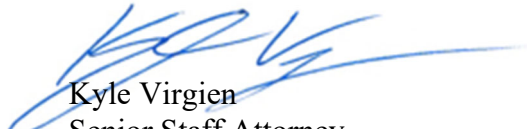

justification cannot support the Marshals Service's system-wide reliance on for-profit facilities. The largest facility for which the Marshals Service has obtained an exemption is in Florence, Arizona.<sup>31</sup> This facility serves two courthouses over an hour drive away (Phoenix and Tucson) and two courthouses over a three-hour drive away (Yuma and Flagstaff). Convenience cannot justify this exemption. And the Marshals Service is readily able to hold people near some major population centers without using for-profit facilities. For example, in the New York City area, the Marshals Service held a total average population in Fiscal Year 2022 of over 2,000 people at the Bureau of Prisons' MDC Brooklyn facility and the county-run Essex County (New Jersey) Correctional Facility.<sup>32</sup> With some additional foresight and effort, the Marshals Service could accomplish similar arrangements at the handful of major population centers where it uses for-profit facilities. Similarly, it could readily close facilities in inconvenient locations such as Florence, without implicating these concerns.

We would be glad to discuss this matter further. Please feel free contact me at kvirgien@aclu.org with any questions and to schedule a meeting or call to discuss it.
