Re: Public Records Request dated 3/26/2015

Dear Ms. Choudhury,

Per your public records request, I have attached the following information for records between September 1, 2014 and March 26, 2015 and have included a brief explanation of each item you requested. Should you need further explanation, please contact me at any time.

- #1 As agreed, due to the voluminous amounts of information, attached is the query showing the name, gender, booking date, bond amount, sentencing court, date of release and charges (Misdemeanor). Note: We have indicated when the individual was released by either Gulfport or Biloxi courts but that doesn't necessarily mean they were released if they were here from another court or they had felony charges.
- #2 No documents exist
- #3 There are no records regarding the determination of indigency for individuals who are eligible for court appointed counsel. This is determined by the Municipal Court Judge. Attached are the qualifications that individuals are required to meet by Tiger Correctional Services, a contract company that determines indigency for phone and canteen accounts. H.C.S.O. does not make these determinations.
- #4 N/A
- #5 Based on actual numbers, the approximate cost of housing is $72.70 per person per day.
- #6 N/A
- #7(a) See attached.
- #7(b) See attached.
- #7(c) See #1
- #7(d) See #1
- #7(e) N/A

Sincerely,

Lisa Kilpatrick
