No. CV 12-00601-PHX-ROS

DECLARATION OF
CORENE T. KENDRICK

1 I, Corene T. Kendrick, declare:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice before the courts of the State of
3 California, and admitted to this Court pro hac vice. I am a staff attorney at the Prison Law
4 Office (“PLO”), and an attorney of record to the plaintiff class in this litigation.

5 2. On February 19-20, 2020, I participated in a monitoring tour of ASPC-
6 Tucson, which has an infirmary. On February 19, 2020, I toured the infirmary and spoke 7 with the site medical director, who stated that there were two negative pressure rooms in 8 the infirmary, and showed the rooms to us. Both rooms had patients living in them.

9 3. On July 31-August 1, 2019, I participated in a monitoring tour of ASPC-
10 Lewis, which has a small 13-bed infirmary. On July 31, 2019, I toured Lewis’ infirmary.
11 I did not observe any negative pressure rooms, and the health care staff working in the 12 infirmary confirmed that there are none at Lewis.

13 4. On April 2-4, 2019, I participated in a monitoring tour of ASPC-Perryville.
14 At the time of our tour, the area previously used as an infirmary was being converted into 15 an inpatient mental health facility. The infirmary services had been moved to Lumley
16 Unit, where the patients were in an open dorm setting. There were three isolation/private
17 rooms, that were occupied, and nursing staff confirmed that they were not negative
18 pressure rooms.

19 5. To my knowledge, ADC does not have any infirmary / inpatient medical 20 beds at any facilities other than Florence, Lewis, Perryville, and Tucson prisons.

21 Exhibits

22 6. Attached as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of a document produced by 23 Defendants’ counsel on March 19, 2020, that they Bates-stamped as ADCM1607083, in 24 response to a recurrent document request for all agenda and meeting minutes for the 25 monthly “Director’s meeting” between the ADC Director and the leadership of the health
26 care contractor. This document is dated February 7, 2020, and lists three agenda items;
27 none of which relate to COVID-19.
